

BELONGING

An Exhibition of Contemporary Art

2nd November to 13th November 2016

at Project Contemporary Artspace - 255 Keira Street Wollongong

Opening Night - Friday 4th November at 6.30pm Speaker: Lord Mayor - Gordon Bradbury

Featuring Works by...

Kate Stehr, T.S. Zaracostas, Paula Gowens, Allanah Driese, Deborah Redwood, Penny Hulbert, Anita Larkin, Virginia Settre, Angela Forrest, Libby Bloxham, Karen Hook, Jennifer Jackson, Melissa Ritchie, Mary Wingrave, Arja Valimaki, Moira Kirkwood, Susan McAlister, Nicole Grimm-Hewitt, Gillian Day, Judy Bourke and Melanie Duncan

ARTIST TALKS

Saturday 12th November

11.30am - Melissa Ritchie, 2016 Archibald finalist, discusses her unique and quirky style of portraiture

12.30pm - Why teach art to children- Creating a better world, with Susan McAlister

3pm - Anita Larkin speaks on her current practice and her work for Belonging

5.30pm - Virginia Settre back from the Hong Kong Art Expo, discusses how the Neo-Romantic art/genre can traverse all cultures

FREE WORKSHOPS

To book for workshops: Text only to 0423034020 or email: lingums@yahoo.com

Saturday 12th November

1pm - 2.30pm - 'A hat to be seen in' come along and upcycle a lampshade into a funky hat with Libby Bloxham

4pm - 5.30pm - An introduction to felted sculptural modelling with Anita Larkin. .

Sunday 13th November

11am - 1pm - My Life - Sculpture and drawing with Deborah Redwood. Can you trust your creativity to guide your personal life?

2pm - 3.30pm - Collage and Composition with Jennifer Jackson

Gallery Open Hours: Wednesday - Sunday 10am - 4pm

Drop-in FREE Community Art-Making Space.

Respond to the theme Belonging and have your work hung in the gallery!

10am till 5pm, 12th November.

This exhibition was funded by a cultural grant from community, cultural and library services, Wollongong City Council.